

2018 Board of Directors

Amy S. Oshinsky

Amy Oshinsky has a diverse background that spans strategy, corporate communications, corporate philanthropy, project management, and marketing in the corporate and not-for-profit sectors. She is an innovative and entrepreneurial leader who consistently delivers strategic initiatives to drive change and achieve better organizational performance.

Amy's background includes a broad range of accomplishment over three decades as an executive in the financial services industry. As an executive with the Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, she successfully led high-profile initiatives in strategic planning, corporate communications and philanthropy, brand strategy, and change management. These included design and execution of a comprehensive 150th anniversary program, development and implementation of a corporate philanthropy program focused on financial literacy in community colleges, communication of Guardian's financial strength at the height of financial crisis, redirecting the company's strategic planning process to align business and financial planning, and building a strategic marketing organization.

Amy is active in Yale alumni affairs, planning, and fund-raising. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the Women's City Club of New York, where her contributions have included co-chair of the Centennial Committee as well as serving on the Executive, Development, and Nominating Committees. She is on the Board of Governors for the Hundred Year Association of New York, where she is a strategy and communications advisor. She is a former member of the Executive Committee of the 14th Street Local Development Corporation, where she was Treasurer and on the Search Committee. Her industry organization memberships have included the Conference Board's Strategic Planning Council, the Life Insurance Market Research Association's (LIMRA) North American Advisory Council, and chair of LIMRA International's Research Planning Committee.

Amy Oshinsky graduated with honors from Yale University, where she was the first woman publisher of The Yale Daily News. She earned an MBA from the New York University Leonard N. Stern Graduate School of Business. She also has the designations of Chartered Life Underwriter and Chartered Financial Consultant from the American College.
