Women's City Club Hosts a Conversation with Manhattan District Attorney Cyrus Vance Jr. on March 1

- Join a discussion regarding criminal justice reform and creating social change in New York City and nationwide -

NEW YORK, N.Y. – Women's City Club of New York (WCC) hosts a conversation with Manhattan District Attorney Cyrus Vance Jr. on Wednesday, March 1 to discuss criminal justice reform, gender-based violence and the role of the District Attorney in creating social change in New York City.

Mr. Vance was sworn in as the District Attorney of New York County on January 1, 2010. Since then, he has positioned the District Attorney's office as a national leader in criminal justice by expanding its expertise on a variety of 21st century crimes, including identity theft, cybercrime, white-collar fraud, hate crimes, terrorism, domestic violence, human trafficking, and violent and gang-related crimes.

He has taken a national leadership role in addressing the issue of race in the criminal justice system, including commissioning a study by the non-partisan Vera Institute of Justice to evaluate the Office's practice in charging, plea-bargaining, and bail. Using funds obtained through penalties against financial institutions, Mr. Vance has also made significant investments in criminal justice initiatives in New York City and nationally, including testing the backlog of rape kits nationwide and reducing the number of individuals with mental and behavioral health issues in the criminal justice system.
