

Margaret C. Cianci - Board Member, 2016. Former Chair of the Nominating Committee. Currently Chair of the Governance Committee. Current member of Audit Committee, Nominating Committee. Former member of Executive Search Committee, Strategic Planning Committee.

Margaret Cianci is the Executive Director of Alliance for Cancer Gene Therapy, ACGT. Ms. Cianci has held this title since the inception of ACGT in 2001. Ms. Cianci works closely with ACGT's board of directors, Scientific Advisory Council, Research Fellows and staff.

Ms. Cianci's previous career was primarily in the financial services industry in which she held various positions in financial services, credit, operations, marketing and private banking for both The Chase Manhattan Bank and Bankers Trust in New York. In addition, she held a sales and marketing position at HBO.

Ms. Cianci also serves on community and philanthropic boards in New York City and Greenwich, CT, gaining extensive experience in the non-profit field. Ms. Cianci holds an MPA in Policy and Public Administration from New York University, an MBA in Marketing/Finance from Columbia University and a BA from Colgate University.