

Board of Directors

BETTY C. JONES

Betty C. Jones, a retired Social Work Administer, worked in the field of Child Welfare for over 40 years. For the last 20 years before retirement, she was the voluntary social worker for her Church, First Presbyterian Church in Manhattan. Betty has been on many not for profit boards and currently serves as Board Chair of the Ridgewood Older Adult Center, Caring Community and past president of the New York Disaster Interfaith Services. She is the Chair of the Governance Committee, former Board Secretary at WCC and Board member at Day Care Council of New York. Throughout her Betty has been a strong advocate for families and children and seniors.

Betty is a graduate of Hartwick College, Oneonta, New York and the Columbia University School of Social Work.