

Board of Directors

SABRINA STRATTON

Sabrina Stratton was elected to the Board of Directors in June 2019. She served as Secretary in 2020, and has been the WCC Treasurer since January 2021. Sabrina Stratton currently serves as Senior Vice President, Northeast Regional Director at Amalgamated Bank. In this role, Sabrina is responsible for the leadership and management of the commercial bank in the Northeast Region. In her previous role as the Regional Director, Sabrina served as First Vice President, Commercial Banking, managing $1 billion in client assets and providing guidance for effective liquidity management.

Prior to joining Amalgamated Bank, Sabrina took on roles of increasing responsibility at Wachovia Bank (acquired by Wells Fargo), SunTrust Bank, Arvest, and JP Morgan Chase. Sabrina holds a BSBA (Accounting) from Old Dominion University and is a Master of Science in Accountancy candidate. She has served as Amalgamated Bank's head of the Black, Indigenous, and People of Color employee resource group. In addition to her leadership positions at Women Creating Change, Sabrina is also on the board of the Upper Manhattan Empowerment Zone.
