

Leslie Kawano

Leslie was elected to the board of Women Creating Change in July 2022. Leslie is a Director of Customer Success at S&P Global for the Desktop & Channels group within S&P's Market Intelligence division. She helps enterprises find value in a product suite of multi-asset-class datasets and web-based workflow solutions.

With over 9 years in the Financial Services industry, Leslie has experience in account management, enterprise sales, and building and leading Customer Success teams. She is passionate about helping others and creating an inclusive environment.

Leslie graduated from The George Washington University School of Business with a bachelor's degree in finance and economics. She currently resides in Brooklyn.

